FINAL SONG

'TIKKUN OLAM'

(To the melody of "Do You Hear the People Sing?")

NARRATOR 2:

Thanks to Mordechai's advice and to Queen Esther's royal sway,
We did not have to deal with Haman's plot to put us all away.
We refused to scrape and bow before the crime he did devise,
And in the end he walked right into his own demise.

NARRATOR 1:

Haman thought that with his evil power he'd take care of the Jews,
And King AHASHVEROSH would be forced to share his views.
But Esther had cooked up a plan to insure that he'd lose!

(Join in!)

So our story's at an end and we are set to celebrate,
But we must also not forget the reason that we mark this date.
We must always recognize when an injustice has been done.
Just like Queen Esther, we must stand up and be the one.

If we wait for better days, remaining calm and out of sight,
We might just miss the chance to raise our voices and to fight.
As Mordechai taught, we must stand up and shout for what's right!

This is called Tikkun Olam, and it's an opportunity
To be the ones to act for those whose lives are not so blessed and free.
As we celebrate the way in which Queen Esther took her stand,
We must now do the same for those who may need a hand.

Take ... a ... stand
